Our Little Free Library relies on philanthropic support from individuals like you to accomplish our work of providing spiritually uplifting, Christian/Catholic reading materials, while also building community, inspiring readers, and increasing book access. By honoring/memorializing a loved one you are also supporting our Little Free Library. You are empowering individuals to broaden their horizons on their faith journey, think critically, and become agents of positive change in our community. Your gift helps us create a ripple effect of transformation.

Your community and St. Barbara Ladies Guild thanks you for your support.
